DECLARATION FOR ELECTRONIC REGISTRATION
OF THE PHD THESIS

I, the undersigned ____________________________, declare, under my own responsibility that I am aware:

1. of the university’s obligation to organize the legal registration of PhD theses at the Biblioteche Nazionali Centrali in Rome and Florence, that must be enacted according to regulations and in compliance with the Law no. 106 dated 15 April 2004, and relative implementation regulations (Pres. Decree no. 252 dated 3rd May 2006);

2. of the need to grant USiena air permission to transfer the work onto any type of support and to convert it into any format in order to preserve it in time, in order to ensure preservation and consultability of my thesis by third parties. USiena air guarantees that no changes will be made to the content and the structure of the thesis;

Student reg. no. ______________________ tax number ____________________________

E-mail address (communications by email can only be sent through the institutional email post box) ____________________________

Title of thesis ____________________________________________

Keyword __________________________________________________

Department __________________________________________________

PhD course in ________________________________________________

Cycle _______________________________________________________

Final Exam passed on ________________________________

Tutor/s from the University ____________________________________

Tutor/s not from the University ________________________________

Handle of the registration in USiena air ________________________ further to the self-registration procedure of the digital version of my PhD thesis in the archives of USiena air university, as provided for in the university’s PhD governing regulations, aware that in the event of mendacious declarations, the Presidential Decree no. 445/2000 foresees criminal sanctions and forfeiture from benefits (articles 76 and 75),

3. that issue of the qualification certificate is subordinate to the registration of the final thesis by the interested part in the university’s open access archives (https://usiena-air.unisi.it), that will guarantee preservation and public consultability, fully, in part or only the bibliographical information, and that presentation of a brief summary of the thesis contents (maximum 1500 characters) written in English is also required, that will be available for viewing via the university web site.

4. that the University of Siena has adhered to the “Berlin Declaration on Open Access to Knowledge in Science and Humanities” (http://openaccess.mpg.de/319790/Signatories);

5. that based on the data provided, the university will archive the full text of the PhD thesis as per the herein declaration and make it consultable via the USiena air open access institutional archive, as well as in the catalogues of the (Biblioteche Nazionali Centrali) National Central Libraries in Rome and Florence.

   I also declare

6. that the copy of the thesis registered in electronic format is totally identical to the ones delivered to the Commissioners and to any other copy registered in the university offices and that consequently the university is exempt from any liability with regard to any errors, imprecision or omissions in the contents of the thesis;

7. that the content and organization of the thesis is the original work by me and does not in any way affect third party rights, and that therefore the university is exempt from any liability of any kind, be it civil, administrative or criminal and will be held exempt by me from any request or claim by third parties.

   I THEREFORE AUTHORIZE

the University of Siena to make available the complete version of the thesis via the university archives.

Date                      Author’s signature

________________________  _________________________

A copy of a valid identification document is attached.