

EUROPEAN UNION, STATES AND CITIZENS. BETWEEN ANTI-EUROPEANISM AND CONDITIONALITY

DIPARTIMENTO DI STUDI
AZIENDALI E GIURIDICI

UNIVERSITÀ
DI SIENA 1240

22 JUNE 2017

23 JUNE 2017

13.45 - Welcome coffee

14.00 - GREETINGS AND INTRODUCTION

Tania Groppi,

University of Siena, Coordinator of the Jean Monnet Module EUCOLAW

Roberto Di Pietra

Director of the Department of Business and Law, University of Siena

Giuseppe Tesaro

Italian Association of European Jurists

14.30 - I PANEL

THE CONSTITUTIONAL IDENTITY: A FORM OF ANTI - EUROPEANISM?

Chair: Giuseppe Tesaro, Italian Association of European Jurists

Lectures

Helle Krunke, Kobenhavns Universitet

Direct Democracy, Constitutional Identity and European Union

Gianmario Demuro, Università di Cagliari

Counter-limits and Constitutional Identity

Francesca Rosa, University of Foggia

Brexit and the British Constitutional Identity

Communications

Lucrezia Di Stefano, The Safeguard of the Constitutional Identity Inside the European Institutional Perimeter: the Euroskeptical and Nationalist Oppositions in the European Parliament

Katalin Kelemen, The Hungarian Constitutional Court and the Concept of National Constitutional Identity

Floriana Plataroti, The Constitutional Identity and the Primacy of EU Law

Simona Polimeni, The Constitutional Identity as a Counter-limit

Simona Rodriguez, The Dichotomy between «Referendum and Immigration». The Dangers of Direct Democracy

17.00 - II PANEL

A STRONG CONDITIONALITY: THE EUROPEAN UNION AND THE ECONOMIC GOVERNANCE

Chair: Elena Bindi, University of Siena

Lectures

Andrea Pisaneschi, University of Siena

Economy, Constitution and Sovereignty in the European Context

Lorenza Violini, University of Milan

Constitutional Courts and European Governance: Which Perspectives?

Josep Castella, Universitat de Barcelona

The Impact of the EU Governance on the Local and Regional Autonomy; the Spanish Case

Communications

Antonia Baraggia, The "Strict Conditionality" in the Constitutional Systems of States in Bailout: Controversial Aspects

Federico Di Dario, The Rise and Fall of Conditionality in EU Economic Governance

Brando Mazzolai, The EU and the new Economic Governance

Iliaria Rivera - Francesco Grisostolo, Social Rights and Balanced Budget Principle at National and Regional Level: a Difficult Mutual Conditionality

9.15 Welcome coffee

9.30 III PANEL

A WEAK CONDITIONALITY: THE EUROPEAN UNION AND THE RULE OF LAW

Chair: Valeria Piergigli, University of Siena

Lectures

Marilisa D'Amico, University of Milan

The Protection of Fundamental Rights in the EU Legal Order

Ibrahim Kaboğlu, Marmara Üniversitesi

Rule of Law under Pressure: the Turkish Case

Mirosław Granat, Uniwersytet Kardynała Stefana Wyszyńskiego W Warszawie

Rule of Law and EU Law in Poland

Fruzsina Orosz, Magyar Tudományos Akadémia társadalomtudományi kutatóközpont

Rule of Law and EU Law in Hungary

Communications

Matteo Bonelli, Carrots, Sticks, and the Rule of Law: Why is the European Union Failing to Protect Its Values in the Member States?

Sara Cocchi, "Strengthening the Rule of Law": Sketching a Comparison Between the "Domestic" and "External" Constructions of an EU Founding Principle

Daniela Fanciullo - Anna Iermano, Recent Developments on the Monitoring of the Rule of Law within the European Union in the Respect of its Identity Values

Francesca Raimondo, Citizenship and Integration. EU Citizenship's Evolution and Perspectives

Marco Antonio Simonelli, The Preliminary Reference as a Tool for Strengthening the Conditionality in the Field of Rights: the Role of the Court of Luxembourg

Elisa Spiller, The Tele 2 Case: Towards a European Digital Rule of Law?

12.30 CONCLUSIONS

Andrea Simoncini, University of Florence

Co-funded by the European Union

Gruppo di ricerca e formazione sul diritto pubblico europeo e comparato

Scientific Committee

Prof. Tania Groppi, Prof. Andrea Pisaneschi, Prof. Valeria Piergigli, Prof. Elena Bindi

Secretariat

Giammaria Milani (gmilani88@gmail.com)

Floriana Plataroti (florianaplataroti@gmail.com)

AULA ROMANI - PRESIDIO SAN FRANCESCO

PIAZZA SAN FRANCESCO 7 - SIENA