FAQ

Solidarity Fund 2023

1. How do I apply for Solidarity Fund 2023?

You must submit your application online. Use your credentials to log into the dedicated area of the Segreteria on-line platform: “Incentivi, premi e borse”- bandi generici (“Incentives, awards and grants” - general calls)

The following files must be attached to the application:

- a) the application form – available within the same section - duly completed and signed (scanned copy or image file)
- b) documentation attesting to the grave personal, family or financial difficulties (documentation must be submitted as a single file). To confirm application submission, you must “print out the final receipt” (confirming submission of your application) WITHOUT THIS PRINTOUT CANDIDATES ARE EXCLUDED FROM THE COMPETITION; do not send or deliver the receipt to the Ufficio borse e incentivi allo studio.

2. Can I submit an application for the Solidarity Fund if I am exempt from payment of all university fees?

NO! Because the solidarity fund is not a refund of fees already paid, but an exemption from payment.

3. To which academic years does exemption under Solidarity Fund 2023 apply?

Total or partial exemption refers to payment of fees for academic year 2022-2023 and any outstanding fees up to and including academic year 2017-2018.

4. I have applied for Solidarity Fund 2023: must I pay the instalments of fees due by 2 Maj 2023?

NO. Having submitted an application for the Solidarity Fund, you are not required to pay any tuition fees until the Committee issues its decision, and you may register for exams in this session. The Committee will meet after the deadline for applications, and as soon as it has completed its work, you will be informed of its decision by email.

5. I have applied for the Solidarity Fund 2023 to cover all 2022/2023 AY fees. Can I register for exams?

Only if you have paid at least the first instalment, including stamp duty and the Regional tax.

6. What must I attach to the Solidarity Fund 2023 application?

All documentation, as complete as possible, supporting the circumstances described in your application form.

7. Must I include the ISEE certificate among the attachments?

NO, should the Committee wish to see it for better assessment, it will request it explicitly.
