Research field <sup>2</sup>	History
Research project	Agricultural Technologies – National Research Agritech
Acronym for research project	AGRITECH
Location(s) of the research activity	University of Siena – Dept. History and Cultural Heritage
Project title (ITA)	Ricostruire e narrare la profondità storica della tipicità agroalimentare di Siena e del suo territorio
Project title (ENG)	Reconstructing and narrating the historical depth of the agri-food uniqueness of Siena and its territory
Description of the research project/topic	The primary goal of this proposed research is to gather the historical and cultural elements essential for constructing a scientifically grounded narrative that delves into the intricacies of the food culture behind the 'uniqueness' of traditional Sienese cuisine. This endeavor seeks to establish a robust communication framework within which to position the scientific analysis activities planned by other branches of the AGRITECH project. The overarching aim is to facilitate the dissemination of these findings beyond specialized circles, making them accessible to a wider audience, and to provide various stakeholders with an additional tool to enhance the value of their own activities.
Activities entrusted to the research fellow (ITA)	L'assegnista di ricerca dovrà condurre una approfondita ricerca storico-archeologica sul paesaggio agrario e silvo-pastorale storico del territorio senese, sulle pratiche di conservazione e trasformazione dei relativi prodotti e di preparazione e consumo degli alimenti, come elemento determinante per definire la tipicità della tradizione alimentare e culinaria senese.
