2. The application and attachments must be in pdf format, the allowed maximum size for each document being 30 MB. For any technical problem related to the compilation of the application you can contact the technical support that answers the email unisi@cineca.it
3. It's recommended to access PICA well in advance to consult the "Guidelines for completing the application" and avoid system overloads that may not allow the procedure to be concluded in due time. Any other ways of submitting/sending the application forms are not allowed, under penalty of exclusion from the selection. Additions/modifications to the application after the submission of the application are not allowed.
4. Applicants may access to the system PICA using:
 - a) the Public Digital Identity System (SPID - security level 2), selecting the University of Siena. If candidates do not have SPID, they can apply according the procedures indicated on the site www.spid.gov.it, <https://www.agid.gov.it/it/piattaforme/spid>.
 - b) the credentials issued directly by the PICA platform. Such registration will necessarily require the possession of an e-mail address.
 - c) the LOGINMIUR account.

For both methods, b) and c), it is necessary to sign the application and attach copy of a valid identity document for handwritten signature.

5. The following documents must be included with the application:
 - a signed and dated curriculum vitae containing the list of qualifications, scientific publications and activities conducted.
 - scientific publications intended to be submitted to the Board for evaluation; only the publications attached at the application stage will be evaluated (maximum number indicated in art. 1)-
 - a copy of a valid identity document, if required.
6. The applicant will have to declare pursuant to articles 46 and 47 of Presidential Decree no. 445/2000 certifying the truth of all data contained in the application.
7. The applicant furthermore must declare in the application, under their own responsibility:
 - to have no criminal convictions;
 - to have no criminal proceedings in progress;
 - to be registered on the electoral roll;
 - to enjoy civil and political rights in state of citizenship/origin;

12. Once the application has been submitted, the candidate will receive an email containing the associated ID number which will identify the candidate's application for the entire competition procedure.
13. The University administration declines any responsibility for the unavailability of the recipient or for the dispersion of communications due to incorrect indications given by the candidate, for failure or late communication of the change of address indicated in the application, or for any postal mismatch or in any case other reasons attributable to third parties, or other unforeseeable the Administration is not responsible for.

Art. 4 – EVALUATION BOARD

1. The Evaluation Board is appointed from candidates proposed by individual Departments and in observance of the Code of Ethics, by Rectoral Decree no later than 60 days after the deadline for applications.
2. The Board is composed of three first-level professors (“prima fascia” or equivalent role in the case of components from foreign universities), belonging to the academic recruitment field or to an academic discipline in the same group of academic recruitment fields. At least two members of the Board must be from outside the University of Siena.
3. The appointment decree is published on the official University noticeboard and on the web page dedicated to the competition procedure.
4. No later than 30 days after the Board's appointment, candidates can dispute the Board members, indicating their reasons. The Rector decides the dispute. The Rector's decision is promptly communicated to the candidate.

Art. 5 – SELECTION OF CANDIDATES AND PROPOSED CALL

1. The Board is governed by the general assessment criteria determined by the Academic Senate. The Board also observes the specific functions established by the Department and detailed in part I (art.1).
2. At its first meeting, the Board sets the general criteria and specific evaluation methods and procedures. The criteria and methods are published on the web page dedicated to the competition procedure.

Art. 6 - PROCESSING OF PERSONAL DATA AND PERSON RESPONSIBLE FOR THE PROCEDURE

1. We hereby inform that the University of Siena will process the personal data provided by candidates in their application or communicated by candidates with application supplements.
