

Villa Le Balze - Georgetown University is seeking qualified candidates for the Residence Assistant (RA) position located in Fiesole, Italy.

The RA at Villa Le Balze is focused on enhancing the living/learning community by providing support to residents and program participants. The position requires a person that is flexible enough to take on many different roles as dictated by the changing needs of the participants. The ideal candidate works well with people on many different levels and thrives in a tight-knit academic community.

The core responsibilities for this position are: Residence Life Advising, Emergency Support, 24-hour On-call Support, Community Support, Public Relations and Library Support.

This is a part-time position working mostly late afternoons through dinner and on weekends. The candidate will live at Villa Le Balze in Fiesole and must have the ability to communicate in Italian and English. The position offers room and partial board as well as a modest stipend. Preference will be given to candidates with the legal right to work in Italy and training in Basic Life Support/CPR. This is an ideal position for a graduate student. The position will begin on or near the 1st of July 2015.

To apply please send a CV and cover letter to info@villalebalze.org. The search will continue until a suitable candidate is found.
