Come and spend the summer in Chicago! The Institute for the International Education of Students Abroad, or IES Abroad, is offering scholarships to attend a summer class at Roosevelt University in Chicago, Illinois (USA), taught in English.

Program Dates: June 29 to August 8, 2020

Applicant requirements:
- Under 30 years of age upon application
- At least two consecutive passing semesters at your university before application
- Students may not have a PhD or professor status in a public or private institution

What’s included:
- Tuition & Housing
- Meal stipend
- Visa and Student Medical Insurance
- Orientation, Cultural Events, and Local Activities

Please note that Scholarship recipients will be responsible for their airfare to and from Chicago, as well as any additional food, transportation, or personal expenses during the program.

Structure of the Program:
Summer Scholars will take one class at the Roosevelt University campus during the summer term. In addition to the course, you’ll have access to all Roosevelt University student facilities, plus a variety of events to explore different parts of Chicago!

Please contact Veronica Semeraro at vsemeraro@fondazioneies.it for further details.

For more information, please visit www.iesabroad.org/summerscholars