

Boosting European Security Law and Policy:
Focus on Flows of Migrants, Data Security and Movement of Capitals (BeSEC)
Kick-Off Meeting

SATURDAY 20 OCTOBER 2018

09.00 Welcome addresses

Francesco Frati, Rector University of Siena

Stefano Pagliantini, Vice-Director Department of Law at the University of Siena

Costantino Capuano, Questore of Siena

09.30 Introduction

Marco Ventura

Coordinator of the Project, University of Siena and Fondazione Bruno Kessler, Trento

The European Union and security: reconciling the internal and the external action

Giammaria Milani

Vice-coordinator of the Project, University of Siena

The European Union: internal law and policies on security

10.00 Jean Monnet Projects at the University of Siena

Pierangelo Isernia, University of Siena

CReW - Cultural Relations at Work

Giammaria Milani, University of Siena

EUCOLAW – The Europeanization of Constitutional Law

Riccardo Pavoni, University of Siena

EULAWSD – European Union Law and Sustainable Development

10.45 Coffee break

11.15 Flows of migrants, data and capitals: European security law and policy

Maria Casoria, Royal University for Women, Bahrain

The evolution of personal data protection law in the EU and in a comparative perspective

Ljubica Djordjevic, European Centre for Minority Issues, Flensburg

Data Protection and Security

Lubica Saktorová, Matej Bel University, Banská Bystrica

Security and Migratory Flows

Silvio Ranise, Fondazione Bruno Kessler, Trento

The EU funded FINSEC Project for an Integrated Framework for Predictive and Collaborative Security of Financial Infrastructure

13.00 Conclusions

Alessandro Palmieri and Riccardo Pavoni, University of Siena

13.45 Lunch at Certosa di Pontignano

VENUE: CERTOSA DI PONTIGNANO (SALA VERANDA)